KBR’s motion in limine no. 15 regarding “Medical conditions of non-trial plaintiffs” seeks to exclude “any testimony, evidence, or reference to non-trial plaintiffs (in this case or the other case pending in federal court) having medical conditions, symptoms or signs.” KBR’s motion in limine no. 16 regarding “Cancer or death claims of non-trial plaintiffs” seeks to exclude “any testimony, evidence, or statements that any non-trial plaintiff has cancer, has died of cancer, is believed to have cancer, is believed to have died of cancer, or developed cancer due to exposure to sodium dichromate.” Plaintiffs’ motion in limine no. 27 similarly seeks to exclude “any medical records or other evidence offered to establish a lack of causation of injuries as to Plaintiffs who are not members of the trial group” because such evidence is “irrelevant to the claims of the trial group Plaintiffs and undercuts the rationale for creating trial group efficiency.”

Plaintiffs cannot and should not suggest in any way that a non-trial plaintiff has any medical condition caused by or attributable to sodium dichromate, Qarmat Ali, or anything KBR did or did not do. If plaintiffs or their witnesses do make any such suggestion, or this Court allows such evidence, then KBR is entitled to (and may have to) introduce evidence that such assertions by or regarding non-trial plaintiffs are unfounded. This trial should not be about the claims and purported medical conditions of non-trial plaintiffs, and plaintiffs should not be permitted to create prejudice by suggesting or planting the notion that non-trial plaintiffs have or claim such conditions – that would create distracting and improper mini-trials and would require KBR with very short notice to try to rebut such prejudicial claims, suggestions, and notions. Plaintiffs themselves admitted in their motion in limine no. 27 that doing so “undercuts the rationale for creating a trial group.”

Out of an abundance of caution, and because the Court has reserved its ruling on these and related motions in limine regarding medical conditions of non-trial plaintiffs, KBR submits Exhibits 1756 thru 1848. KBR does so without waiving any right to object to the admission of such evidence or testimony at trial, and does so in the hope that these exhibits will not be necessary once the Court decides these matters.
